Having already won three NEBA titles this year, Ryan Graywacz went into this weekend owning a 144 point lead over second place Danny Khuu in the Bowler of the Year standings. Sunday evening he cemented his place in NEBA history clinching the 2016 Bowler of the Year title with a win in the final singles tournament of the year. As the 14th seed in the bracket, Graywacz first downed Gary Kurensky 213-182, then Mark Bouchard 256-182 to move into the quarterfinals. There he faced Joey Nereu and downed the former NEBA Tournament Director by nearly 80 pins, 266-190. The newest Bowler of the Year advanced to the final by defeating eight-time Bowler of the Year Bill Webb 205-188. Jeremy Milto and Graywacz battled in the championship match. Graywacz jumped out to early lead getting 23 pins ahead by the fourth frame, but Milto threw five strikes to set up for tenth. Graywacz finished his game first with a strike in the ninth and a triple in tenth forcing Milto to throw at least a double in order to win. Milto went strike and then seven pin giving Graywacz his fourth title of 2016 with the 224-220 win.

THE FINAL ROUNDS:

Final: Ryan Graywacz def. Jeremy Milto, 224-220

Semifinals: Ryan Graywacz def. Bill Webb, 205-188

Jeremy Milto def. Rich Brooks, 279-194
